

This passage is a Spanish politician talking about American politics

Click here to listen to the audio once, then answer the questions below.

What does the speaker say about Biden?

- That he will be popular in Europe since he is familiar with politicized actors
- That he is quite European due to his extensive knowledge on Europe's idiosyncrasies
- That he will be very European because of his membership on the Foreign Affairs Committee
- That he will be the U.S.'s most pro-European president

Which statement best reflects the speaker's attitude?

- He is in awe of Biden's accomplishments and knowledge
- He is enthusiastic about Biden's presidency based on his track record
- He is cynical about Biden taking on divisive European attitudes
- He is cautiously optimistic about Biden's presidency based on his hiring choices

PracticaEspañol.com – Nivel B1

Haz clic aquí para ver la lección original, con preguntas en español.

"Creo categóricamente que Biden va a ser el presidente más europeísta en la historia de Estados Unidos. ¿En qué me baso? Primero, su historial como miembro del Comité de Asuntos Exteriores, cuarenta años que estuvo en el Senado, su conocimiento profundo de la idiosincrasia europea, conoce a los actores políticos, los actores económicos europeos... ¡y luego el equipo!"

Juan Verde
(Democratic Party advisor, Spain)